ANNUAL ACCESSIBILITY PLAN

The 2005 Annual Accessibility Plan was received and approved. Council discussed the items included in the 2005 budget and possible future sources of funding. It was noted that the Recreation Master Plan process had identified accessibility needs and consultation would be required with the Recreation Service Boards as part of that process given the overall costs.

OVERSIZE PERMITS

Council discussed the proposed permits for oversized vehicles and requested that staff ensure that agricultural vehicles be exempted in the by-law, if deemed necessary.

DELEGATION APPEAL OF SNOW VALLEY DEVELOPMENT CHARGES

Solicitor, Ian Rowe appeared before Council to present the concerns of his client in relation to the proposed cost sharing agreement for Snow Valley and the proposed settlement of the Appeal of the Snow Valley Development Charges. David White, Solicitor for Snow Valley Highlands, and Helen Mihailidi also appeared to present the position of their clients.

BY-LAWS

The following By-law was passed:

- By-law No. 2005-026 – Confirmatory
